AWARD REPAIR CONTRACTS.

Anacostians to Push Proposed Highway Improvement Work.

Contracts have been awarded for repairs to several of the Maryland roads leading into the eastern section of the District, and work will be started in the near future. The highways which lead to Benedict, and other points will be closed to traffic within a short time, and this will mean that motorists desiring to reach these places will either have to go by way of Congress Heights and Oxen Hill, or by the new highway, and over the Malboro Pike.

Rev. C. M. Leister, D. D., superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, of Maryland and Delaware Peninsula, was the speaker last night at the temperance mass meeting held under the direction of the Anacostia Federation for Social Service. Tonight, Senator James K. Vardaman and Rev. Henry T. Cousins, Ph. D., will make speeches.

The dredging work in the Anacostia flats in project No. 2, is progressing, but operations in project No. 1, have come to almost a standstill. The committee on the Anacostia Citizens' Association, which endeavored to find out why the work in this project cannot progress more rapidly.

Several women of St. Teresa's Church are conducting a rummage sale, the proceeds of which will be used for the purpose of raising funds to carry on the lawn fete to be held the first week in August.

BANKHURST PINCHED AGAIN.

London, July 16.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst was rearrested today under the "Cat and Mouse Act" and lodged in Holloway jail. She was in such a weak condition as a result of her recent hunger strike that she was taken to jail on a stretcher in her own automobile.

Dining-Room Furniture

Drop by our big show window and look at the suggestions we are showing to increase the comfort and beauty of your dining-room. There are buffets, china closets, extension tables, serving tables, chairs and rugs on display, and all of them are great values that we are offering for Friday and Saturday of this week. Here are some of the attractive offerings:

CREX RUGS, 15c.

The genuine Crex, size 18 by 36 inches. Just the thing to put over your larger Crex rug by the serving table, or at other places where the wear is greatest. Special price, 15c.

BUFFET, $37.50.

Early English finish, which is the most attractive for the dining-room. There is a heavy French plate glass mirror, and the legs and top are beautifully carved. A most attractive piece at $37.50.

EXTENSION TABLE, $21.25.

This matches the buffet. There is an elaborately carved claw foot, and the proportions of this table were well studied by the designer. It is in the window, too. The special price is $21.25.

ARM CHAIR, $6.95.

The finish is the same as the buffet and table. There is a choice of three kinds of leather slip-seats. The price for Friday and Saturday is $6.95.

KENTUCKY ARENA PROVES TRIANGLE

Gen. Bennet H. Young Makes a Three-cornered Fight in Campaign.

CAMDEN NOT ALARMED

Col. Richard P. Ernst Looms Up as 'Biggest Republican Factor' in State.

By FRANCIS H. GESSNER.

New York, July 15.—The recent short stay of Senator Johnson N. Camden in New York when he came to see his family off to Europe, gave the wisest men of the Waldorf a certain excuse for discussing Kentucky politics and in the midst of their observations who should slip in, but Senator Ollie James and his able adjutant, Tom Pence. Then the interest in Kentucky was heightened and much said that would only have amused both James and Camden had they been compelled to hear it.

There was reference to the campaign for a four months' term in the Senate that has been formally proposed by Gen. Bennet H. Young, of Somerville, and the wonder is among the faithful in New York that Senator Camden should have any opposition for actual election to the office of Governor.

When the appointment was given Senator Camden the impression prevailed among his friends here and in Washington that he would be the only Democratic candidate for election.

Gen. Young seems inclined to make a campaign issue out of the fact that he was elected to the Senate in 1911, and the campaign fund of 1911. Also the Young election calls upon Camden to answer if he ever voted for William J. Bryan.

No Alarm Felt, However.

The Kentucky contingent ever in New York does not seem disturbed by the Young election, questions or campaign. They look for Senator Camden's nomination in the primaries and election in November as even more sure than the election of a Democrat to the long term. It is not forgotten that Kentucky has sent two Republican Senators to Washington in recent years and the campaign already being made by Col. Richard P. Ernst for the Republican nomination is viewed with some apprehension by Kentucky Democrats who come on each week with stop-overs in Washington. Dick Ernst has long been a notable figure in the Kentucky Republican organization, doing much for others and getting little for himself.

He has always figured in national conventions of his party and has been careful, also, when Kentucky patronage was discussed at the White House during Republican rule.

The recent popularity of Ernst and the defection among Democrats that is sure to follow the nomination of Beckham will combine to give the Kentucky Democrats much to worry about before November. Whatever happens on election day the nomination of Ernst will make him the leading Republican figure in old Kentucky from now on and even if defeated he will be recognized as the head of the Republican organization in the State with possibly a firmer grip in that organization than the late Senator Bradley ever had in his best days.

Had Bradley lived he would hardly have made the campaign owing to ill health, but he would have had much to say about his successor. From now on the ambitious ones of the Republican party looking for national honors will look to the Hon. Richard P. Ernst when they seek support from old Kentucky in a National Convention.

New York G. P. O. Started.

The departure of the Hon. George W. Palmer for Europe, with Mrs. Palmer and their son Sherman, rather startled the New York Republican contingent, but they observed that the party looking for national honors will look to the Hon. Richard P. Ernst when they seek support from old Kentucky in a National Convention.

he ought to have made the fight for governor, urged upon him months ago, but no one knows the power of the machine better than Fairchild, and he knew that chairman Barnes and the dominating force of the State organization were set on Whitman and stubborn about it without giving any specially good argument for the Whitman nomination.

There is no actual argument in favor of Wadsworth for Senator, except that he has found favor with a few of the powerful ones and promises to be good and doable once he is elected. Fairchild may be a bit pessimistic as he thinks that might have been but he will never regret the lament about what might have been. He is too wise for that, and besides what's the use when State tickets are carefully made up in a private room of the Republican club?

Suit was begun yesterday in the District Supreme Court by Mrs. Mary P. Cochrane to have a committee appointed to take charge of the estate of her husband, John R. Cochrane, who died on June 15, 1913, and that he is incompetent to care for it. Mr. Cochrane is seventy years old. George Curtis Shinn is the wife's attorney.

Mrs. Adelle Stimmis yesterday sued in the District Supreme Court to have her husband, Rudolph, from collecting $250 due him upon a patent smoke consumer from his partner, Frank Baker. The wife alleges her husband deserted in January, 1913, and that he is now out of the city. She says he has squandered money realized upon the collection of the patent. Attorney Archer & Smith represent her.

Bartlett Minot sued the Capital Traction for $5,000 on account of the alleged refusal of a conductor to accept a transfer. T. J. Butler and Thomas W. O'Brien are his attorneys.

The will of Virginia F. Roderick, died yesterday, after making small bequests to numerous relatives and friends, leaves the residue of her estate to her son, George P. Roderick, and her daughter, Katherine Roderick, who is now out of the city. She says he has squandered money realized upon the collection of the patent. Attorney Archer & Smith represent her.

The suit of Felicitas P. Villaverde, sub-rogated, against the Adams and other express companies to prevent the diversion of a large consignment of rebel arms to the United States, was dismissed yesterday on motion of the plaintiff's attorneys, Douglas, Ruffin & O'Neal. The money has been seized in El Paso, Tex.

Wilsonites Have Hard Stand Against Penrose

Representative Palmer Has Full Support of Administration—Guffey Forces Rally Anew.

Clouds are gathering thick around the Democratic ticket in Pennsylvania. "Organization domination" is the cry which the administration forces, headed by Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, candidate for the Penrose posts, are meeting—these are the same forces which routed the Guffey organization and procured a solid Wilson delegation at the Baltimore convention two years ago.

President Wilson's administration has left no stone unturned in its assault on Palmer and his organization. The White House dictated the ticket, and Secretary Bryan and Secretary Daniels have made the defense of the administration a matter of course. In addition, Secretary of Labor Wilson, formerly a member of Congress from Pennsylvania, is lined up behind Palmer.

The defense of the administration is now getting ready to plant a stick of dynamite under the victor—if they can find the dynamite. Palmer, who is now getting ready to plant a stick of dynamite under the victor—if they can find the dynamite.

Following a meeting of the Democrats on the delegation Wednesday night, Representative Palmer, who is now getting ready to plant a stick of dynamite under the victor—if they can find the dynamite.

Trains will start from the District line at 10 a. m. two sections; 11:30 a. m., two sections; 2:15, 3, 4, and 5 p. m.

CITY'S BIRTHDAY UNNOTICED.

No observance of 124th Anniversary of District's Founding.

Without any public observance the one hundred and twenty-fourth birthday anniversary of the District of Columbia passed yesterday. The act of Congress of 1800, which created the District, was passed on September 9, 1790.

The real history of Washington city began in 1800, the year of President Adams' inauguration. Plans for the city had been made and a few buildings erected. In 1801, when Alexander Shepherd became governor of the city, it entered upon its present period of prosperity.

The commission form of government was established upon Shepherd's retirement from office.

AH, KATCHA DA THIEF? DIAVOLO! ANDREOS WILL GET BACKA DE MON, AH!

Fruit Vendor Artfully Dances Tango When Told of Probable Recovery of Stolen $1,700.

Ever see an Italian fruit vendor dance? You should have seen James Andreos when told last night by a Herald reporter that the police had caught a man suspected of being the one who stole his bank roll, amounting to more than $1,700, on July 14 at 106 C street northeast.

The tango-dancing exhibition improved wonderfully when the dancer was informed that the suspect had more than $1,500 on him when arrested.

The prisoner is being held in Indianapolis, Ind., for the Washington authorities. He may not be the right party. A photograph received from Philadelphia police may
